Arcadia folk have filed formal protest with State Auditor Gordon against the registration of the high school bonds. The reason given therefor is failure to provide Arcadia with a voting precinct at the recent election.

Hon. John T. Barker, Attorney General of Missouri, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, will address the voters of Iron County at the courthouse in Ironton, Saturday, May 13, 1916, at 2 o'clock p. m. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Hon. John H. Bradley of Dunklin county, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Judge of the Springfield Court of Appeals, was a visitor to Ironton last Saturday. Mr. Bradley is an affable gentleman and thinks his chances for securing the nomination are good.

Our long time friend, Mr. R. C. Love, the merchant at Edgehill, was a visitor to Ironton last week. This was Mr. Love's first trip here in five years and he said he thought we had made considerable progress in that time. When he was last in town we had neither lights nor walks.

The ladies of St. Paul's Guild announce that in the past winter they have quilted 32 quilts, using from two and a half to four spools of thread on each quilt. Now in the face of all this work accomplished in such a short time who is going to be so unreasonable or uncharitable as to intimate that there is any talking or gossiping at quilting parties? Not me.

Mr. D. A. Dille, who lives on the other side of Shepherd Mountain, suffered a stroke of paralysis on returning to his home from a trip to Ironton Monday noon. He never rallied from the attack and died this (Wednesday) morning at 4:45 o'clock. The deceased was about seventy years of age and leaves a widow who has the sympathy of the community in her bereavement.

In the announcement column this week will be found the name of Thos. D. Jones, who is seeking the Democratic nomination for Sheriff of Iron County. Mr. Jones needs no words of commendation from the REGISTER. He has filled the office of County Treasurer for several years and is well known to the voters throughout the county. He asks kindly consideration of his claims.

There were five jury trials in circuit court last week. State vs. Eli Gray, hog stealing, not guilty; State vs. Wm. Yingling, fine of $25; Wm. Chrisman vs. City of Dexter, verdict for plaintiff for $400; G. W. Cunningham vs. Polite Elvins, suit on contract, verdict for $8.49 for plaintiff. Wm. King vs. Sligo Furnace Co., damages, verdict for plaintiff for $1,000. The jury was discharged Saturday evening.

In our announcement column this week will be found the name of O. M. Reed as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff of Iron County. Mr. Reed's home is at Vulcan in the south end of the county. He is a native of Iron county and has spent much of his life here. His neighbors and those who know him best speak of him in highest terms and say he would make a careful and painstaking official. He respectfully asks consideration of his claims.

The grand jury completed its labors and adjourned shortly after noon Thursday of last week, having been in session about three days and a half. In all 49 witnesses, whose per diems and mileage amounted to about $150, were examined. Four indictments were returned—two for violations of the local option law and two for carrying concealed weapons. The grand jury is a relief of the dark ages and not necessary or practical at this day and age. The report is published elsewhere.

Owing to difficulties in moving raw material out of Mexico, the farmers of this country are about to face a shortage of binder twine for this season. The Missouri State Penitentiary having a limited quantity on hand will reserve orders for future shipment to the farmers and dealers within the State for the next fifteen days, or as long as the supply lasts, at 9c FOB Jefferson City in small quantities and 8c in quantities of 1000 pounds or over.

Yours truly, D. C. McCLUNG, Warden. In this issue of the REGISTER will be found the announcement of Wm. R. Edgar, Jr., as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Prosecuting Attorney of Iron County. Mr. Edgar has filled this office for more than a year past and we dare say no one will dispute the assertion that he has made a fearless, aggressive and most capable prosecutor. Should he again be honored there is no question but that he would continue to discharge the duties of his office with the same zeal and fidelity that has characterized him in the past.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Mackley and daughter, Miss Ann Elizabeth, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Reburn motored from Desloge to Ironton Tuesday evening of last week. Miss Ann Elizabeth returned to Arcadia College after the Easter vacation. Mrs. Reburn has been spending several months with her daughter, Mrs. Mackley. Mr. and Mrs. Mackley left the latter part of the week for French Lick Springs, Indiana, where they will make a sojourn of several weeks in the hope that it will prove beneficial to Mr. Mackley's health, which has not been very good recently.

Dr. Farrar, secretary of the Ironton school board, last Saturday completed and forwarded to the State Auditor for registration the $15,000 in bonds to be issued by the district for the purpose of building a high school. If the Auditor finds all the proceedings regular and registers the bonds the board will at once proceed to market them and get ready to build. The bonds are of $1,000 denomination and draw five per cent interest. The board has received many inquiries from people who want to purchase the bonds, and there is no doubt that they can be readily disposed of at a premium of $200 or more.

A vote was taken on the most attractive children at the Better Babies' Contest, April 27th. The result of the vote was as follows: Blue ribbon, Mary Cecilia Russell and Billy Barger Fletcher; Red ribbon, Ruth Jones and Arthur Marie La Plante; White ribbon, Dorothy Buckey, Adeline Louise Downey, and James Newman, Jr. A blue ribbon was awarded to Willma Ruth Pratt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pratt of Arcadia, for being the fattest baby at the contest. This baby is five months old and weighs 21 pounds. The prizes in the physical contest will not be given out for at least a month as the scoring committee will have to go over each examination card with great care.

An entrance was effected into the store of Wm. E. Hall in Arcadia Monday night and about $80 taken from the safe. The combination had not been set for the night and the thief, evidently, opened the safe with ease. The robbery was not discovered until the store was opened Tuesday morning. Investigation revealed that the burglar or burglars had gained entrance into the store by climbing a tree and going through a window in the second story of the building. There was every indication that the work had been done by some one familiar with the premises—that is, local talent. A telegram was sent for a couple of blood hounds at Poplar Bluff. They arrived on train No. 4 Tuesday afternoon and were taken to the tree that had been used in getting into the store; the dogs promptly took the trail, going west and up Stout's creek. The dogs went directly to the barn on Wm. Borders' farm, about a half mile southwest of Arcadia, and there seemed to lose the scent.

There arrived in Ironton on train No. 9 Friday night, April 20th, a man and woman who registered at the Commercial Hotel as "G. J. Jones and wife, St. Louis." The man stated that he was in search of a small chicken farm, and if he could find a place to suit him would buy it and engage in poultry raising. After looking around for a day or two Jones leased the home of the late Mrs. Phoebe Farmer, in west Ironton, and stated he would make his home there until he could buy a place to suit him. The man and woman left the hotel and went to the Farmer home to live. On the following Thursday they arrived in town Mr. Chas. A. Steele, of the Pinkerton Detective Agency, St. Louis, on the lookout for a man and woman wanted in St. Paul, Minnesota, and Rochester, Pennsylvania, on charges of bank swindling. Mr. Steele had never seen the man and woman he was hunting, but from description furnished him at once became satisfied that "Jones and wife" were the two he was looking for. That afternoon, in company with Sheriff Blue, John J. Marshall and deputies Blanton and Fisher, the detective went to the Farmer home. They were refused admission and the front door of the house was locked. The man and woman were taken in custody by a couple of the officers as they were seeking to get away by a back door. The prisoners refused to make any statement and were taken to jail. Mr. Steele says the man's name is Ned Keefe and his home is in Warren, Pa. He formerly conducted a bucket shop in Rochester, Pennsylvania, where he is wanted for passing stolen certified checks to the amount of $1200 on a bank. The woman with him is not his wife but his daughter, Mrs. B. B. Gregg, wife of the son of a prominent and wealthy wholesale hardware merchant in St. Paul, Minnesota. It seems that Keefe and his wife have not been living together for nearly twenty years and when he went to St. Paul from Pennsylvania about three months ago it was the first time his daughter had seen him since she was a child five years of age. Soon after his arrival here he induced the woman to have a bank cash some of his certified checks—about $500 in all. The checks were returned to the bank as "worthless" and about that time Keefe and his daughter disappeared from St. Paul. That was about three weeks ago and the detectives have been on the trail ever since. The couple were traced to Chicago, St. Louis and then to Ironton. A number of certified checks were found in Keefe's possession. It is thought that his idea in coming here was to remain long enough to form acquaintances, get some of his checks cashed and flee to other fields. Keefe is a telegrapher by occupation and about fifty years of age. The daughter is about twenty-five years old, rather prepossessing in appearance and apparently much interested in her father. Her husband arrived from St. Paul Sunday noon, but she greeted him most indifferently and did not seem to be glad to see him in her hour of trouble. An officer from Pennsylvania with requisition for Keefe's return to that state is expected any day. The woman has signified that she will go back to St. Paul without requisition papers. When arrested the officers found $22.40 on Keefe. Since she has been in jail Mrs. Gregg has turned over to the Sheriff about $300. Mr. Steele, the Pinkerton agent, says that Sheriff Blue has certainly been courteous and efficient in helping him in the case.

To the voters of Iron County: I wish to say that I am no longer a prospective candidate for the office of Assessor of Iron County. I greatly appreciate the solicitation of my friends all over this county. I thank one and all for the kindness shown me and hope that I may still retain the friendship of my many friends.

Notice to Patrons of Picture Show.

In my experience as manager of the local picture show I have found a growing tendency on the part of my patrons to patronize only the best in pictures. I have endeavored to give the best at a minimum admission price and have succeeded very well up to the present time. But now in order to continue with the better class of photoplays I am forced in self defense to raise the admission price of adults to 15c. However I have reduced the admission price of children to 5c. These prices will apply only on Tuesday and Saturday nights which will be known as Triangle Nights. On these nights I have arranged to show the Triangle Program which always consists of a Griffith or Ince directed drama and a Keystone comedy directed by Mack Sennett. On this program you will see such stars as Billie Burke, Douglas Fairbanks, Dustin Farnum, Raymond Hitchcock, Mable Normand, Frank Keenan, Eddie Joy, Wm. S. Hart, Weber and Fields, Marie Doro and many others. I am confident that this service will please and I leave it in your hands. If you want the best in pictures, patronize them well. The opening program will consist of a six reel drama, "The Coward" featuring Frank Keenan, and a two reel Keystone comedy, "Fickle Fatty's Fall," featuring Roscoe Arbuckle.

The opening date will be Tuesday May 9th.

Admission, Children, 5c. Adults, 15c. Reserved seats, 20c. Saturday only.

Yours respectfully,
D. ARTHUR LAMANTE,

The cold weather is putting back vegetation. Very little corn has come up and farmers are not half done planting.

I was on the Missouri Southern Railroad. That road is doing a fine business. There were 61 empty cars set out at Leeper Monday night for the Missouri Southern Railroad. They run an extra freight train every day. The road bed is fine. They are hauling gravel and putting it in where it is needed. Mr. Radke, General Manager, deserves much credit. They are also giving good passenger service.

If they had a motor car to run from Ellington, they would help the traveling public very much. The new hotel that is being built at Leeper will be a great help to the traveling public. It will be up-to-date in every respect. Their big store, under the management of Jas. Carnahan, is doing a fine business, but the Mill Springs merchants have the largest trade on the Iron Mountain Railroad. They are wide-awake merchants.

I was at Hendrickson Thursday. Harviell & Harviell are doing a fine business. Neely Harviell was a citizen of Des Arc for many years. He says he likes to hear from his old friends here. I met with my old friend, Dr. Sebastian, on the Frisco. We had a pleasant talk about days gone by. He had just made a visit to Caledonia, his old home.

I also met Rev. Henry, pastor of the M. E. Church at Arcadia. He is a live wire and full of life. I enjoyed his company while traveling on the railroad.

I spent the night at Taskee—a live little town. Stopped with Jas. Catron and family. I always felt at home with them.

While at Greenville I met several from Piedmont and Patterson. Mr. Ford, merchant, was with them. He is a fine merchant and a good christian gentleman.

I am greatly glad Wayne county did so well on the bond issue. Iron county will be the next county to vote the bond issue. Provided, Bro. Eli don't kick.

Mary Belle Pate, wife of William Pate and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cooper, died at her home at Horine, Mo., Monday evening at 6 o'clock, after a lingering illness. Her remains were brought here on Wednesday and the funeral conducted from the Baptist church, of which she and her husband were members. Rev. W. W. Strother, of Fredericktown, preached the funeral to a large crowd of sorrowing friends, after which the body was laid to rest beside her little one which had preceded her to a better world about two years ago. Mr. Pate and wife lived here until about two years ago when they moved to St. Louis. Later they located at Horine. Her health began to fail and she gradually grew weaker. All that loved ones, friends, and physicians could do was done for her, but it was of no avail. She grew steadily worse until her gentle spirit left her tired body for the beautiful home of God. By taking her to heaven God may mean to make heaven more real to her loved ones left behind, and to inspire them to live more worthily of the Gospel. To the bereaved husband and two children, father, mother, and other loved ones left, we extend our heartfelt sympathy and may God bless them and protect them. The following relatives attended the funeral: Wm. Wagner, wife and two children from St. Louis, George Pate, wife and three children from Piedmont, Mrs. Lizzie Shelton and daughter from Brunot, Wm. Cooper, the father, who has been working on a large brick building at Fredericktown, was called home to attend the funeral.

The following of our Methodist folks attended the Methodist District Conference at Piedmont which was in session there last week. R. L. Stamp and wife, Dr. E. E. Whiteside and wife, Mrs. W. E. McKee and Mrs. W. W. Strothers.

Ed. Eustes and wife from Fremont Neb., Jack Eustes from Hoxie, and Mrs. Ed. Maddock from Hoxie, and Mrs. Eunice Morris from Piedmont

While crossing the railroad Saturday in front of the depot, Novice Daniels, the little daughter of Luther Daniels, fell and broke her arm in two places above the elbow. Dr. Jones was called from Brunot and set the broken bones and she is resting as easily as could be expected.
